Re: United States v. Adam Lambert, 20 CR 469 (RA)

Ronnie Abrams, U.S.D.J. December 14, 2023

Dear Judge Abrams,

The Government writes on behalf of the parties and Probation to request respectfully an adjournment of the conference scheduled for tomorrow, Friday, December 15, 2023, at 9:00 AM. As an update, the defendant has now been sentenced in the parallel state court proceedings. On November 28, 2023, the defendant was sentenced to 30 months' imprisonment and two years' post-release supervision following his conviction on October 17, 2023 for Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the Fifth Degree, in violation of N.Y. P.L. § 220.06(1). See People v. Adam Lambert, Ind. No. 73435N/2023 (New York Cnty. 2023). Given the imposition of that sentence, the parties are prepared to proceed with a disposition and joint recommendation on sentencing; however, in the past two days, possible uncertainty over how the Bureau of Prisons would calculate the duration of any imposed sentence and also where the Bureau of Prison would direct any sentence that is imposed be served. For that reason, the parties are respectfully requesting an adjournment to a date and time that is convenient for the Court during the week of Monday, January 8, 2024, when the parties and Probation are available except for the afternoon on Monday, January 8, 2024 and the day of Thursday, January 11, 2024. Prior to the date of any adjournment, the parties and Probation will submit a letter to the Court concerning the anticipated disposition and any recommendations on sentencing.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS United States Attorney
